PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This volume, a continuation of the previous volumes, is set in the same manner as the first three. The main difference, is that this one contains the large HOLSTON VIEW CEMETERY, which occupies 116 pages, and a list of obituaries of ones buried in the HOLSTON VIEW CEMETERY, which adds 5 more pages to the HOLSTON VIEW collection. The balance of the book, is other cemeteries that have been submitted.

This book is laid out in the same format as Volumes I, II & III. It is in six sections. The Maps, List of Cemeteries covered in this volume by Map Numbers, Cemetery Lists, Additional Updates, Cemetery Index, and Name Index. The maps are basically the same as before, with the updates and new cemetery locations added. There are 24 maps, some which are a part of two sections, north and south. There is a Map Key which gives the names of the maps and their location and proportion to the entire Scott County. The cemeteries are listed in the book in order of their location, with the exception of the HOLSTON VIEW, which is the first entry because of it's size. The rest of the cemeteries are arranged in numerical order of the map that they are located on. The names are not in alphabetical order, keeping the family plots and names together. Many times the person submitting the list will add their own family records, and knowledge. This is in ( )'s. Some of the cemeteries are submitted by more than one person. When I receive them, I compared and include a consolidated list with everything given. When there are more than one interpretation of a person or date, they are listed with a / showing both names or dates. Example: (pg 191) DAVID L. SMITH Nov 30 1849 - Oct 5/30 1904. When there is a date and a dash only, like: Aug 14 1883 - , it shows the tombstone a birth date but no death date. When there is no dash, that is the only date that shows on the stone. When there is a 19--, or Sam--l, it is because the date or information that was there, was too badly worn to be readable. When there is the word "Marker", or "Field Stone" after the date, it shows that there was only a funeral home marker. These markers are approximatly 6X4 inches, made of metal, and the information is given in two ways. They have letters that fits into a grove which makes the words and dates. Most of the time, it will give the name and years only. Many times, some of the letters will fall out of the groove, and only part of the information is found. The other marker is the same size, with a glass over the front, protecting a piece of paper with the name and years given. This is even more vulnerable to its exposure. The seal leaks, water gets under the paper and the ink will run, the sun will fade the lettering out, or the glass brakes and the information is destroyed. The information shown in [ ]'s are the comments of the compiler. Sometimes there will be underlining, showing a correction.

In this volume, there are 82 cemeteries listed. 63 are new listings, including the HOLSTON VIEW, 4 updates of Vol. I, 8 updates of Vol. II, and 7 updates of Vol. III. Also there is a list of HOLSTON VIEW OBITUARIES, and a copy of a newspaper article on "THE CIVIL WAR MARAUDERS".

The index of the females are listed by all known Surnames. If there were more than one surname by marriage, she would be listed under each surname.

There was much work by those who copied these tombstones, and submitted the lists. To those, I would like to thank for their extra efforts. Without them, this compilation would not be possible. The following are the ones that submitted these cemetery lists:

1)	ANNABELLE HICKAM	8)	JAMES M. VICARS
2)	E.V. HICKAM	9)	LILBURN G. GILLIAM
3)	EULA MAE McNUTT	10)	DORIS SMITH
4)	JOSEPH N. ADAMS	11)	OMER C. ADDINGTON
5)	NOVELLA DAY STILTNER	12)	SARA CLARK
6)	BOBBIE B. JOHNSON	13)	EDWARD CLARK
7)	BETTY B. BLEVINS	14)	MABEL HARP

There were many helpers that went into the cemeteries with these people. They are listed with those cemeteries they were assisting on.

I would like to thank all those who helped on this volume. Many hours, days, and months are represented of hard work to make this volume possible. Because I have not checked any of these cemeteries out myself, I have compiled only what was submitted. Therefore, I take no responsiblilty of any errors in the transcribing, or the contents. If you have any corrections, or additional information, please send them to me. Write to: Mrs. PHYLLIS PETERSON, 704 E. Highland, Hermiston, Oregon, 97838.

HOLSTON VIEW CEMETERY - Weber City #14

The next 121 pages are of the Holston View Cemetery. It is a large cemetery that is owned by a group of Stockholders, and is the main one used in the area. It covers 35 acres, and is expanding 4 more acres around July of 1986. It is located just south of Weber City on Highway 23, also known as Lynn Garden Drive. It is about 5 miles north of Kingsport, Tennessee.

The cemetery is, as of 1986, divided into 6 sections. They are;

1 The Old Section (B, D1 & D2) It is right by the road.

2 Garden Of Devotion (G Section)

3 Garden Of The Cross (E Section) There's an old cross stone there.

4 Garden Of The Good Shephard (J Section)

5 Garden Of The Well (K Section)

6 Christus Gardens (H Section) This is the largest of all the sections

Following the tombston inscription section, there is a list taken from the Obituaries of people buried in the Holston View Cemetery.

Much appreciation is given to all those who coverd such a large cemetery.

This finished all the sections with the exception of the "H Section", which is the largest section. There were many stones with just the Surname. These seem to be family stones. There was so many of these, these were not recorded, to give us more time to get those that did have a record. The office lady said there were lots of people burried there that has no memorial.

SAMUEL J. PENLEY CEMETERY - East Stone Gap #41

By NOVELLA DAY STILTNER, JUNE PRESLEY, Mrs. B. J. (DORIS) JOHNSON

Visited Sept 15 1984

Located 100 yards due east of Pendleton Church. Intersection of Routes 649 & 827

This cemetery overlooks the house the Penleys built. Information given me by MAUDE STEWART and NANNIE JOHNSON is that SAMUEL was brother of BELL PENLEY VICARS LANE, who is buried in the Estepp Cemetery. SAMUEL's wife name was CASSIE. They thought she might be buried here, as did others. We only found two tombstones.

SAMUEL J. PENLEY died May 15 1901 age 44 years. "He died as he lived, a christian" (his stone is broken off it's base)

J. H. POWERS Nov 7 1841 - Oct 1 1905 (couldn't read inscription, headstone is loose, has brobably been moved. Cattle graze here.)

LETTER ON FRALEY CEMETERIES - Dungannon #73,74 & 75

Letter dated May 4, 1985

By JAMES M. VICARS

"I am a native of Scott County and have been researching the FRALEY & VICARS families for several years.

"My family lived on Valley Creek near Culbertson Chapel. WILLIAM R. FRALEY came to Valley Creek from Russell County circa 1850. On August 28 1850, he purchased 400 acres of land from WILLIAM & MARY DINGUS. His neighbors were CHARLES CULBERT-SON (Culbertson Chapel was part of this farm), NATHAN DAUGHERTY, HENRY McCONNELL and GEORGE McCONNELL.

"If you look at your South Dungannon map and locate the McConnell Cemetery #57, Meade Cemetery #58, and the Culbertson Cemetery #59, you are very close to two cemeteries on what was the Fraley Farm.

"The first cemetery is about a half to three-quarters of a mile south of the McConnell Cemetery. As you go down Valley Creek toward Fort Blackmore or Gate City, you can locate this cemetery on the ridge to your left and above the old

C.C. FRALEY house. This is the CHRISTOPHER C. FRALEY CEMETERY (Dungannon #74)

"On the same side of the road and creek, about one-fourth mile from C.C. FRALEY CEMETERY near the old NELSE MOORE house, is the MOORE CEMETERY (Dungannon #73). NELSON MOORE married HELEN C. FRALEY, daughter of WILLIAM R. FRALEY and CAROLINE E. CLAY FRALEY and, of course, a sister of C.C. FRALEY.

"There is another cemetery on the original property of WILLIAM R. FRALEY. It is on the hill, opposite the FRALEY & MOORE CEMETERIES. This is the M.B. FRALEY CEMETERY (Dungannon #75) M.B. FRALEY was the son of WILLIAM R. and a younger brother of C.C. FRALEY.

"Although the Civil War marker for Grandpa Fraley's (C.C. FRALEY) grave does not show the birth and death dates, I know them (B. March 20, 1844 - D. June 1 1921)."

Sincerely,

JAMES M. VICARS

MORRISON CEMETERY - Clinchport #92
(Update Vol 2 Pg 95)

By EULA MAE McNUTT, and dau EVA & WANDA Visited Oct 16 1984

It is now cleaned and we copied all we found with all the names there was. There are many with old rocks. Some sunken with nothing. Stones lying on the ground, and some were broken. Some with foot markers and head stones completely gone from the cemetery. I found half of one against a fence and put it on the grave where it belongs after holding it together to be sure it belonged there and copied it.

THE CIVIL WAR MARAUDERS

[This is an article written by OMER ADDINGTON (noted historian) which was published in the HERALD VIRGINIA GATE CITY, July 18 1984. There is a large picture of OMER ADDINGTON standing in the OSBORN/REDWINE CEMETERY (Hilton #9)]

By OMER C. ADDINGTON

The American Civil War had dragged on for three years and the tide had begun to turn against the South. They had lost the battle of Gettysburg (July 1-3, 1863). One day later they lost the battle of Vicksburg which had been under siege from May 17 to July 4 1863. The fall of Vicksburg deprived the Confederacy of the use of the Mississippi River. The trans-Mississippi Department had come to be the principal sources from which horses, cattle, swine, and other supplies were obtained for the Southern armies. On July 9, 1863, the South lost the Port of Hudson Louisianna: from this date communication between the states east and west of the Mississippi River were cut.

President Lincoln had proclaimed a blockade of the Confederate States on April 19, 1861 which eventually reached from Virginia to Texas, thus stopping the export of farm products from the Southern States and the import of foreign goods.

The Confederate Congress on March 26, 1863 passed the Impreesement tax which was a tax on goods and services. This included the tithe tax on agricultural products and livestock. This was an income tax on the farmers and planters, which was paid in produce and live or slaughtered animals. It was by this tax that the Confederate armies were, to a large extent, fed during the last year or so of the war.

As the spring of 1864 approached, supplies in the South became very scarce and the people began to suffer from hunger and for the want of clothing and shoes.

Marauders had begun to roam the south. Some of them, under the pretense of collecting supplies for the Confederacy.

Scott County had its share of these marauders and in the spring of 1864 a group of them began to raid and pillage in Moccasin Valley on mostly women and old men. The Confederate Congress had passed the Conscription Act February 17, 1864 which required all men 17 to 50, to serve in the Army.

The last week in April, 1864, was beautiful. The grass had turned green, spring flowers were blooming, the birds were nesting and the people in Moccasin Valley had begun to get their land ready for planting.

One day in mid afternoon, the marauders came up the valley, taking everything they could carry away; but, little did they know that they were to reckon with the women in the valley. They crossed Big Moccasin Creek late in the afternoon and made camp on the east side of the creek. There they cooked their supper of stolen provisions. Feeling secure, they did not post a guard for the night: they opened their bed rolls and retired for the night. A heavy fog had formed in the valley along the creek and all that could be heard that night along the creek banks was the croaking of the bullfrogs and the shrill piping of the spring peepers.

As the last quarter of the moon began to rise over Clinch Mountain, the women began to make their move. They went some distance down the creek and crossed to the east side and up the creek to where the marauders were sleeping. Stealthily and silently they began to execute their plan of attack. Each woman carried a large hickory maul. The women were in pairs; they were to pick out a man and hit him in the head with their mauls and beat him until he was dead.

After the massacre, the women recovered their stolen property and that of others which included guns, knives, jewelry and other valuable items. Also the horses of the marauders, which they would need for farm work.

The next day, a common grave was dug and the women, with the help of the old men, carried and dragged them to the cemetery. They are buried in the Osborn Cemetery, a short distance from where they met their doom.

Who were these men? Were they part of some Union army dressed in civilian clothes or part of Rowen Rogues who had infested Southwest Virginia? No one knows. They are like all unknown dead known only to God, but without honored glory.

ROLLER CEMETERY - Plum Grove #14
(update of Vol 3 Pg 184)

By MABEL HARP Letter Received August 1984

There are only two graves there in the backyard of their home. There are dates on a double stone.

JACOB ROLLER Feb 14 1932 - Dec 29 1934 (the stone says "1935". The stone is relatively new, so whoever put the date on, did not remember when he died.)

LETTY MARGARET ROLLER 1844 - 1914

(JACOB ROLLER son of ELIAS and ELIZABETH PAYNE ROLLER)
(LETTIE MARGARET NEELEY ROLLER, wife of JACOB, and dau of CLAIRBOURN G. and AGNESS BOWEN NEELEY)

"Here is the obituary of JACOB ROLLER, which I assume is correct." Mabel

CIVIL WAR VETERN DIES AT AGE OF 102

JACOB ROLLER, long time resident and Civil War Vetern, of Scott County, died suddenly at his home Monday, December 29. Born February 14, 1832. He had lived until Feb 14 1935, he would have reached the age of 103. He was married to Margaret Neely, and to this union was born seven children; all surviving except one daughter, Mrs. IBBIE DILLION, who preceded him to the grave three years ago. His wife died 21 years ago, death and burial taking place on the same day of the month, twenty one years ago. He enlisted in the Civil War at the age of twenty-one years and fought gallantly for his country, and has often said he only hoped "Old Glory" would wave so long as he lived. He professed faith in Christ, was baptized and joined the Baptist Church 75 years ago.

Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. R.C. BEGLEY of Appalachia, and the following sons: HENRY of Church Hill, ELBERT of Sourginsville, JOHN, DOCK and SHERMAN all of Clinchport: also 36 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday, December 30, at the home by REV JOHN NEELEY. Burial followed in the family cemetery.

[checking the Perpetual Calandar, the Dec 29th doesn't fall on a Monday in 1934] ?

RIGGS CEMETERY - Clinchport #9
(Additional Information on Vol 1 Pg 143 & Vol 3 Pgs 77,78)

By MURIEL T. COOTER Letter Dated May 17, 1985

"I am sending you what information that I have on the Riggs family that is buried there. Wm. E. DAVIDSON published 2 books on the DAVIDSON family. The following is from Volume I."

iv. NANCY MELFORD DAVIDSON. The dau of JAMES DAVIDSON and his wife, MARY BACH DORTON.

NANCY MELFORD DAVIDSON, born December 13 1843; died 1922; married Sept 20, 1867 to WILLIAM HARRY RIGGS in Scott Co, Va. He was born on Stony Creek, Scott Co, Va on February 10, 1846 and died 1926. He was the son of RICHARD ASBURY RIGGS and his wife, NANCY McNEW.

WILLIAM HARRY RIGGS was decended from WILLIAM MILES-RIGGS, born 1760-5, who came to Washington Co, Va from North Carolina and he married SARA _____. A son of WILLIAM MILES-RIGGS was REV. JOHN RIGGS (ME), born 1792 married DRUCHANIA STANLEY. A son of REV. JOHN RIGGS was RICHARD ASBURY RIGGS, born 1820 and he married NANCY McNEW; a son of RICHARD RIGGS was our WILLIAM HARRY RIGGS.

The twins MOSES and WILLIAM HARRY RIGGS were reared by their Aunt POLLY McNEW CARTER. At the age of 14, the two were wagon boys in the Union Army in Kentuck Back in Scott Co, Va they had a little log school house built and themselves paid the teacher until their school was finally taken over by the county.

The Riggs ME church stands on the site. MOSES as "PROF. MOSES A. RIGGS" taught 56 years in Scott and Wise Counties, Va.

WILLIAM HARRY RIGGS lived on a farm at Rye Cove, Scott Co, Va and after the death of his uncle, HARRY CARTER before the Civil War was a center of interest for Rye Cove, a landmark, the largest mill in Virginia because of a small stream that turned it. The lower floor ground corn, the second wheat, and on the third was a device for picking thrash from wool. During the season it was operating day and night. HARRY RIGGS when 12 years had the fingers of his right hand torn off leaving only the thumb. HARRY RIGGS continued to operate the mill until it was closed from lack of water and the building was at length torn down. Of the entire family HARRY RIGGS lived out his entire life in Scott Co, Va. He served one term as County Commissioner and two terms as Clerk of County Court.

ISSUE: (5)
